

The coat of arms of the Republic of Serbia is depicted. It features a shield with a blue upper half containing a red lion rampant, and a silver lower half containing a white saltire. At the base of the shield is a golden chalice flanked by two golden wheat stalks. Above the shield is a silver helmet with a red plume. The shield is surrounded by a decorative wreath of red and green leaves. A blue ribbon at the bottom contains the Latin motto "PAX IN VIRTUTE".
