

PRESS RELEASE 6/25/2024

EMOTIONALLY DISTURBED PERSON WITH ACCESS TO A WEAPON

On June 24, 2024 at approximately 3:58pm, the Pequannock Police Department received a third party phone call reporting an emotionally disturbed person, inside of a residence on Jocelyn Place. The report stated that the individual may have access to weapons. The Pequannock Police Department officers responded and secured the home, as well as closed the nearby roadways for public safety reasons. Residents in the area were advised via Nixle.com and the Reverse 911 system to shelter in place and avoid the area. The Morris County SERT and the Major Crimes Unit also responded to assist.

Without further incident, the individual voluntarily exited the residence after multiple communications with family and law enforcement. An investigation is ongoing at this time.
